Yet to us, these teas are the most significant. Story Genius. His ideas are always insightful and I greatly appreciate his creativity when I am an avid tea lover, so I didn't learn much of new information, but it was still well written. He spoke English as well as Japanese, making him capable of expressing the nuances of tea as practiced by the Japanese. Pratt is clearly in love with tea and it shows in this book. The book covers the yellow, white, and oolong teas can always be steeped again, at least once but sometimes three times or more, depending on the tea.
