This sonnet is an interesting view on the struggles of love, and leaves you with a heart-less message. To Althea, from Prison. I hope the talk shows in some way that the community solutions for non-violent women offenders should be the norm. I hope the talk shows in some way that the community solutions for non-violent CPP is a faith based ministry which depends on donations to help with the costs of mailing. Contrary to what you might expect poetry and books had an impact in the joint, an exaggerated response in a place where thinking and feeling were devalued, were thought to be gratuitous and unwanted even as what might be found there was held to be the key to rehabilitation.

I was crazy in love with you, you took away the love and left me plain crazy. My language comes from rhythm and blues before I found Cesar Vallejo and Dickinson and Baraka, a rich texture of blues complaint and longings and saxophone.
