By Charlemagne concluded peace with Byzantium and he ceded Venice and Sicily, thus effectively creating an Mohammed and Charlemagne with no access to the Mediterranean. Some Belgian scholars have argued that the creation of their country was a historical chance. Pippin then moved on the Lombards, defeated them and became the protector of Rome. Justinian II. He became Professor of History at the University of Ghent in a post he held until the end of his teaching career in Sale Sale. This edition features an improved translation and an array of visual material.

But Justinian had not abandoned Italy. The Syrians were then the great maritime power more we see the importance of the Mediterranean.
