Monogamish couples can be sexually polyamorous but remain emotionally 'monogamous'... Monogamish coupling is generally considered acceptable, even normative, within homosexual communities. This is why, historically, homosexual relationships have never been accepted as marriages. But it does not take much digging beneath the surface for their arguments to crumble.

Still, it makes sense if the older couple wish that they had met earlier to have... The inherent purpose of marriage is unity with a romantic partner, not a gateway to raising kids. Marriage is that type of community that is both a comprehensive unity a unity on all levels of the human person, including the bodily-sexual and a community that would be fulfilled by procreating and rearing children . CommunityReviews. We can unpack this all. In April I predicted that the Trump administration would prevail in its effort to include a citizenship question on the census form.
