This was DeMille's first historical drama. While she's in solitary, an accidental fire sets the stage for the very suspenseful conclusion wherein the hero has to come to her rescue. She acted with Ina Claire in The Awful Truth. Both the atheist girl and the Christian boy are specifically constructed as "intolerance" shades of Griffith here and it isn't intellectual argument but lived experience that redeems the girl, THE GODLESS GIRL becomes a better person in some ways than her male foil. Bob may have started the fight but Judy escalated it. Category: Films. He attended Bard College, in NY. The name field is required.
