And then I found myself wondering why not everybody who was good, why not everyone who was religious, shared my beliefs. R L Dabney.

All of these other issues are sort of extraneous, issues that haven't come in. Mark Dever. Bradley: But if He knows in advance that these will in those circumstances be saved by virtue of freely accepting God's offer of salvation through the blood of Jesus, then why not?

The answer is: through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. So too with God. So I think that he has failed to show any sort of logical inconsistency between God's being all-loving and some people freely rejecting God and being lost forever.
